Vor 26 Minuten. I haven't seen any interviews with young males relating the terrible conditions in the camps, pleading to the camera "please let me come home" and suggesting "therapy lessons, maybe" as a fitting consequence of their actions. The "winner-gets-all" concept is ludicrous, imo, because it means that even if one candidate has one single vote more to use an extreme example than the other, he gets all the electoral votes.

The aftermath of the Kafar Qasem case shows the most liberal-democratic treatment of the Palestinian citizens of Israel by the state; unequal though they were in every other aspect of their citizenship status. So far, the violence has been still centered on the southern outskirts of the city, especially in the areas near the university, the international airport, and the Kilo 16 district. Food is more than twice as expensive since the crisis started.

Wiekommt das? Zwischenzeitlich sollte ich das wahrscheinlich gewohnt sein, aber DT's Umgang mit der Wahrheit ist immer wieder erstaunlich.
