Thus nationalism emerged in these parts of Europe, deliberately fostered by the French in the kingdom of Italy, and emerging in Germany as a reaction to French occupation and political domination. Austria, Prussia and Russia similarly introduced aspects of the French military system into their own, but rejected a complete overhaul on the French model. Separate chapters on Haiti after independence and Cuba since are so insightful that they alone are worth the price of the book.

Lucia, captured from the French and did not become a slave society after it was. By this political litmus test after the colonial free coloreds appeared to be more revolutionary than colonial whites, especially the petits blancs. But chacun a son gout, as they say...

Secondly, the French army was in no condition to fight a war, no matter how limited. The more famous battles between the French and English in the Caribbean was the battle of Rocher du Diamant. At this period, new connections were formed by the inhabitants of the most distant regions for the supply of wants they had never before experienced.
