Paul's Letter to the Romans. In The Ark of her womb she gave God human flesh.

Allee else is falsehood constructed for the earthly gain of men! The common good that people seek and attain in the formation of social communities is the guarantee of their personal, familial and associative good[75]. She is the Mother of The-Body-of-Christ in every sense. On whose authority did he do this?

See how clear we make these signs for them; yet see how deluded they are. The Catholic places the human creature at the centre and summit of the created order. Men and women must respond to the gift of salvation not with a partial, abstract or merely verbal acceptance, but with the whole of their lives – in every relationship that defines life – so as not to neglect anything, leaving it in a profane and worldly realm where it is irrelevant or foreign to salvation.
