I might add to this nonsense the nonsense of making female drivers pay the same as males when insurance is based on risk and female drivers are a lower risk, where is the logic in that? Why aren't the British middle-classes staging a revolution?

Just to point out, the insistence that the vote was the exercise of the democracy. In the same year, due to lobbying by Richard Crouch MP, it had the same status as the Union Flag in the UK, when the House of Representatives proclaimed that the Blue Ensign "should be flown upon all forts, vessels, saluting places and public buildings of the Commonwealth upon all occasions when flags are used". Seriously, you pro-leave people have nothing positive to say at all.
